WARRIOR WORDS

Vol. 5, Issue 1 - 12.10.2010

Opinions...

What do you think about all chapters having to order crossover shirts from a set location?

"Getting the shirts from the same place is a good idea because all crossover shirts will be the same, and of great quality. What I am not a fan of is the price, and at least for our chapter it seems to take a very long time to get the shirts. It has affected our chapter by our newest members feeling like we don't care enough about them to get them shirts when they crossover. Cost and time are the biggest issues."

-David Gionta (Epsilon Chapter)

"I think its a good idea as long as its not too costly for some..."

-Brett Hunt (Beta Chapter)

"I think this is a good idea. Chapters would have to submit and pay for there own order, this will cut down on shipping and the amount of people they would have to go through."

-Val Begay (Zeta Chapter)

Beta Chapter Wins Greek Life Awards

North Carolina State University
October 2010

The calendar year 2009-2010 marked the sixth opportunity at North Carolina State University, for chapters to use the Standards Program as a basis for the Greek Life Department Awards. The students who authored the Standards Program offered their community the following challenge: Have Integrity, Be Accountable, Seek Distinction.

This year, Greek Life at NCSU recognized 23 chapters who had risen to the challenge, and 18 chapters were awarded for setting a Standard of Excellence.

Awards were determined by reviewing materials submitted in the chapter Standards Binder. Any chapter who met or exceeded the standard for the 10 reviewed shared principles was eligible for an award.

A panel of four reviewed the binders and narrowed the eligible chapters to the top 5 per shared principle and to the top 4 overall.

Both quantity and quality of programming was taken into consideration. Awards are given for outstanding performance in each of the 10 shared principles.

Beta Chapter was awarded the Outstanding Campus Leadership and Involvement Award as well as the Most Improved Award.

This marks the first time the chapter has recieved a Greek Life award.

2010 Convention brings many firsts for the Fraternity

Oklahoma State University
July 23-25, 2010

Oklahoma State University, located in Stillwater, Oklahoma, welcomed over 20 brothers from across the country. Delta Chapter, who submitted a bid following our 2009 Chief Convention, served as our host this year.

This year's convention, held from July 23-25, brought many firsts for the fraternity. The largest and most obvious was the location. Five years after the fraternity becoming international, we had our first convention outside of North Carolina.

Another first at this convention was the presence of Epsilon Chapter, located at Northeastern State University in Tahlequah, Oklahoma and Zeta Chapter, located at Arizona State University in Tempe, Arizona.

The theme "Living the Legacy, Creating our Future", the agenda for the convention included workshops, a cultural element and the business meeting.

The cultural component was a new addition this year. Casey Bear was able to organize a stickball match, which provided a welcome break from all of the workshops earlier in the day. The Chief Council is considering adding a cultural component to every convention.

And the winners are...

Kerwin Chavis - 2010 Nu Man of the Year

AC Locklear - 2010 Ma'eno of the Year

Zeta Chapter - 2010 Chapter of the Year

John Bailon - 2010 Screaming Eagle Award

CELEBRATING 15 YEARS

Convention Returns to Pembroke for 15 Year Celebration

University of North Carolina at Pembroke

Since the days following the our 2010 Chief Convention, plans for our next convention have been in the works. This summer we will celebrate 15 years of brotherhood as well as being the first, largest and fastest growing American Indian-based fraternity in the nation.

This convention looks to be the best yet. The Chief Council expects to see record numbers of brothers in attendance, both new and familiar faces.

The convention will take place from July 29 until July 31, 2010. Registration will begin on February 18, 2011 and close on July 1, 2011. Late registration will incur additional fees, so be sure to register early.

The Chief Council is currently looking at several different marketing tools to help promote the convention, as well as create a buzz. Some examples of these can be seen at the bottom of the page.

The current Chief of Communications, Robert Conrad, is in charge of planning the convention, and Nu Alpha, which is the North Carolina graduate chapter, has volunteered to serve as our host.

The council is currently looking for themes for the convention as well as brother who would be willing to host workshops or have ideas for workshops. If you could be of assistance in either of these areas, please feel free to contact any member of the Chief Council.

MEET THE PRESIDENTS...

Johnathan Locklear

Chapter: Beta
Class Iota
Crossover: October 23, 2009
Year: Sophomore
Major: Industrial Engineer
Hometown: Maxton, NC
Biggest challenge as president: Trying to be a good brother but also being somewhat demanding and trying to push my brothers to be the best Phi Sigma Nu Chapter that NC State (Beta) has seen. We won two awards this year and I want to be nominated to be the best Chapter in CGC.

Philip Stacks

Chapter: Gamma Class: Zeta
Crossover: Fall 09
Year: Junior
Major: American History
Hometown: Charlotte, NC
Biggest challenge as president: Staying on top of school work while brainstorming and planning events with the chapter. Also keeping myself and my brothers motivated throughout the year.

David Gionta

Chapter: Epsilon
Class: Epsilon
Crossover: April 24, 2010
Year: Junior
Major: Homeland Security
Hometown: Broken Arrow, OK
Biggest challenge as president: Managing time for everything in life, and getting our chapter "out of the red" financially.
